

Cassandra School Showing

Saturday, August 29, 2009 at 4:30 pm

Join us for an evening of class "showings" – not a formal performance but a chance to show what you've been learning and polishing. It's for all levels, so you can see what's in store for you!

Invite friends and family to see your progress, and have fun!

Showings will include short informal performances by your instructors!
